We will provide you with a code that you can use to register. Registration for the event ensures access to the event and free parking at the Ontario Convention Center. You will also be able to select your break out sessions. All attendees must register.

Additional tickets for companions and information about the event can be found at www.mfgsummit.com/summit.

Note: There will be no security provided for items on display. Please secure them to your display, or provide photos of them. This is a closed event, so security should not be a big problem. In past years, people have picked up items thinking they were free give-aways.
