

FROM TRIBAL KNOWLEDGE TO SCALABLE TEAMS

How Organizations Reduce Training
Time and Build Capability Faster

When Your Best Employees Hold the Knowledge, Your Growth Is at Risk.

As organizations grow, training often struggles to keep pace. Critical knowledge remains in the heads of experienced employees. Onboarding takes longer than it should, new employees require more supervision, and valuable expertise can be lost through retirement or turnover.

Join the Manufacturers' Council of the Inland Empire and Chaffey College InTech Center for a practical executive briefing that explores proven strategies to capture institutional knowledge, accelerate workforce development, and build training systems that support growth.

WHY ATTEND? Learn practical approaches to:

- | | |
|--|--|
|  Reduce employee onboarding time |  Improve collaboration |
|  Capture and preserve workforce knowledge |  Use visuals to strengthen training |
|  Standardize training across departments |  Build scalable workforce systems |
